SARSFIELD GUARDS AT ST. MARY'S CHURCH YESTERDAY,

Timely Address by the Pastor, the Rev. Father Thuente, on the "Christian Soldier"-Urges They Take Religion Into Their Daily Life-Decoration of Graves Postponed Until July 13th.

Guards' memorial day until the after-non of Sunday, July 13. The exercises only a pepper-and-salt breast, the Masof the morning were held as intended. The members of the company to the number of seventy about assembled in their company room at the Second Regiment armory and under command of Captain Donovan marched to St. Mary's list pepper-and-salt. church on Hillhouse avenue, where they eral or other high official is saluted.

Rev. Father Thuente, who spoke concerning the Christian soldier. He com-pared the Christian soldier or the solthe unfair manner in which warfare of years gone by was conducted, how unjust and unrighteous were the dealings soldier of to-day, but that he must conduct his campaign along religious and such rule holds with the Massena. moral lines and in a manner which would not be open to criticism of any nature. The speaker closed in urging the men to carry the principles of true religion into all their daily movements and pointed out how the world would be benefitted by their so doing.

Previous to the marching to the church five of the dozen company pins awarded for five years' service were presented. Those receiving them were Captain Donovan, Liutenant Laflin, Lieutenant Spencer, Sergeant Duffy, and ex-Sergeant Maher. The pins are very handsome. They are in the shape pear the company emblem or motto, "Semper Paratus," and C. N. G. They are of 14k gold and quite expensive. The other pins will be presented in a STRIKE STORY DENIED.

Man Discharged from Bigelow Mill for Incompetency.

A story was published recently to the effect that one of the rolling mill strikers had secured a job in the Bigelow Her works and that he was discharged because he was a striker, after being there but one day. It was stated that a telephone message was received from the rolling mill stating that the man was a striker and asking that he be discharged. Both of these stories wer denied yesterday by an official of the Bigelow works, who said that the man mentioned was discharged for incompetency, and nothing else

MR. MUNRO BETTER.

Victim of Bicycle Accident Rested Comfortably Last Night. Dr. Charles W. Vishno, who is attending T. Thorpe Munro, said last night concerning his patient's condition that Mr. Munro was resting as comfortably as could be expected, although his condition is serious. He said that he was unable to tel whether an operation would be necessary, but he hoped that it would not be. Dr. Creevy, a well known surgeon of New York, returned Saturday night after consulting with Dr. Vishno on the question of an operation.

THE BLACK-BREASTED QUAIL.

A Shy Bird Only Found in the Far Southwest.

Good legs and good wind as well as good eyes are needed by the man who goes after the Massena, or black quall. This comparatively rare and beautiful bird is still found in considerable numbers in its habitat Getting to its habitat is what bothers the city sportsman. It is averse to civilization, living among hills far from farms or ranches. It likes altitude and dislikes human companionship, being in these respects the mental opposite of its cousin the ordinary Bob White. If

ATTENDED DIVINE SERVICE any bit of southwestern mountainous country be taken up by ranchers and Mexicans, or , whites began to plant corn in the small valleys, the black quall will leave. The brown quall will find their way there somehow and some time, but their cousins will not await their coming. The two species are never found together, and rarely within five miles of each other. body ever killed a Massena quall in a cultivated place. It is probable that both birds are descended from a common stock. They are exactly alike in size, shape and head markings, and it is noticeable that The very disagreeable weather yes-terday caused a postponement of the exercises attendant upon the Sarsfield surrounding objects. Whereas, how-

The country which it effects is always rugged and not necessarily well watered. It seems to be able to do dier of to-day with the pagan soldier without water for a considerable time, or the one of centuries ago. If any of them are spared by man and wild animals they will raise their own broods near the ditch when the time comes, but the black-breasted quail tarvels miles in a day and when night comes is not at all particular about getting back to its roost of the night before. For this reason one part of the country may contain a good many birds in the fore part of the and be bare of them in the latter

All things considered the Massena has a hard time of it and just manages to keep up its numbers. This species if pursued as steadily as the quail would soon disappear utterly. It fied, for some reason, ages ago to the broken country which it now affects, and which is the only country in which could live at all. It is likely to last for ages to come, as thousands of square miles of that land will never be brought under cultivation. In much of it even a sheep would starve. The only dwellers in the better part of it are cowboys, and they carry six-shooters and rifles of large caliber which are not good against a swinging darting Massena that has business elsewhere.— New York Sun.

Church Decoration.

Your Church is decorated but seldom and it is important that it be done well. More is required of the decorator than formerly. It is desired that the work be done by a responsible House, using modern methods and capable of taking entire charge of the work. Perhaps there is none so well fitted to meet these demands as The Thompson Shop. We are prepared to submit color sketches and samples of carpets that would suitably combine with the Decorations. The work would be executed entirely by our own force and under our own direction. We have the scaffolding and the special equipment necessary. During July and August (our dull period) we can offer you not only the best of our force, but many other advantages.

The News at Malley's

We shall continue on Monday, the selling of small jewelry begun Saturday. All sorts of Waist Sets, Brooch Pins, Stick Pins, Cuff Links, etc,-new goods, too--at an average of TWENTY PER CENT. under regular prices--

And Now, the Summer Home Demands Attention.

People who have shore homes are moving to them. People who have not, are arranging their city homes for the summer time. We can be helpful to all.

The especial demand at the moment seems to be for Porch Furniture, Curtains, Rugs and mattings;—especially for Porch Furniture. People have learned ago that the porch is the most important "room" in the house, in Summer-time, and it deserves the best you can give it.

If you wish, you can give it some very elaborate fur-nishings. The designing of Porch Furniture has reached the artistic stage long ago, and some of the styles we are showing here are as elegant in shape and as attractive in finish as any drawing room piece,and generally much more comfortable in use.

Chief among the new things are the "Raffia" pieces, made from prairie

Handsome, artistic, novel and indestructible: weather-proof, water-proof, wear-proof. A list of twenty sorts of pieces, from a simple tabourette to the most elaborate easy chairs and couches. It is not lowpriced furniture, but it is eminently good furniture and worth every cent it costs.

The bent-wood pieces of course are favorites, being graceful in shape and strong and cheap. Morris Chairs, Arm Chairs and Rockers, in maple finish, dark-green or dark-red, $3.25 and $3.95.

We show a very long line of the inexpensive Rattan Furniture, including large Arm Rockers, Arm Chairs and Children's Rockers. Prices from $1.15 to $2.90.

We have been doing the fastest Matting selling of our experience. A few days ago we offered you 50 rolls of heavy China Matting at $6 a roll. Hotel people and shore-cottagers noted this, and the fifty rolls have come down to seven. If you wish any, be quick. The price is $2 a roll under the lowest retail figure you can find in New Haven or New York.

We have a Corean Matting, weighing 105 pounds pounds to the roll. It is as carefully woven as a Panama hat, and will last almost as long. We sell this for $11 a roll, and recommend it as undoubtedly the most durable matting the world produces.

A Special Offer in Carpets.

A wide range of patterns in the best Body Brussels, with and without borders; also Hall Carpets, with Stair Carpets to match. We offer these at $1 a Yard.

Also, an interesting collection of short ends of rolls; plenty in each pattern for small rooms or for making into handsome and durable rugs. There are Tapestries, Body Brussels, Wilton Velvets, Moquettes, Axmidsters and Savonnieres.
